

5) What concepts have we learned in class which might help me explain my arguments? (see "A Guide to Argument Analysis" and just choose one step that you think you understand, when you master that step, move on to the next one that you think you understand).

6) What was the logical fallacy of the week, and where does Credo commit this fallacy?

Put all of the above together in a few paragraphs, proof read your document, and then submit it to me via Canvas or email. Usually good answers can be presented in two paragraphs which are well-organized and where each sentence is relevant and necessary for what you want to state.
